day, the 17th. Application for admission should be made to the Rev.
V. H. Kiteat.
A SPECIAL cablegram from Boston says that the latest freak among dukes is to wear rings on the thumbs and a bracelet on the left wrist.
The Blue Ribbon entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. hall Saturday evening, was well attended, and the programme gave much satisfaction.
Miss Debbie Lyle was thrown out of a brake near the Marine Railway Saturday afternoon, in a collision with another brake, and rather badly hurt.
If some of our military companies could have seen the bluejackets and marines of H. B. M. S. Hyacinth march from church yesterday they might have profited.
DURING his sermon at the Kauna-kapili Church last evening, the Rev.
J. Waimau referred to the charges of bribery instituted against the two members of the House.
The Very Rev. Father Leonor leaves on the Mokoli this evening for the Loper Settlement, to visit the Fathers and to inspect the arrangements made for the accommodation of the Sisters who will shortly reside there.
The boat race on Saturday was won by the six-oared boat Alice M., the four-oared Alf. Rogers second.
The six-oared Stranger was distanced.
Quite a large number of people witnessed the race from the Myrtle boathouse.

Mr. Rolland is building a new boat for Dr. Trouseau.

A SITUATION as book-keeper or cashier is wanted.

The steamer Kilauea Hou will lay up for a general overhauling.

A BIRTHDAY anniversary was celebrated at Waikiki yesterday.

The Appropriation bill is still on third reading as we go to press.

Mr. T. F. Lansing and family are stopping at H. Johnson's, Waikiki.

A FOUR-HORSE bus loaded with young men "took in" the Fall yesterday.

The old bank beat the new in the clay pigeon shooting contest on Saturday.

The steamer J. A. Cummins will take some machinery for Heeia plantation this week.

The literary committee of the Debating Society will meet at the Hotel this evening.

OAHU College, Punahou Preparatory School and St. Andrew's Priory opened this morning for a new term.

A PARTY of about six lively fellows on horseback galloped out to Kahili yesterday, and painted the valley red.

Mr. Henry N. Castle is taking a vacation preparatory to leaving for Harvard Law School to resume his studies.

QUITE an audience assembled in the Legislative hall at 1 o'clock, to hear the bribery committee's report, but they all got "hoka."

H. B. M. S. HYACINTH is holding her annual target shooting practice.
A squad of about 14 went out to the H. R. A. range this morning, where practice is being held. The shooting will continue throughout this week.

THERE will be a wedding at the Roman Catholic Church on Saturday. Just as the reporter had finished writing the above item, a stray mockingbird came and lighting on the house, said, "Pod, pod, more pod, Podmore;" and he tucked his head under his wing, poor thing.

The following tenders were received at the Interior Department for the construction of two culverts, brick and stone, at King and South streets:

F. at 7:30.

THE BRIBERY CHARGES.

The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery against Reps. Kaui and Kamaulaha, were already to make their report at 1 o'clock this afternoon. It was found necessary to postpone the report as other evidence has come in, and the committee feel bound to include it in their report. The committee will therefore have to hold another session, and it is probable the report will come up to-morrow.

Legislative Assembly.

87th DAY—Sept. 10th.

MORNING SESSION.

The House opened at 10 a. m., President W. R. Castle in the chair.
Minutes read and approved.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

Third reading of an Act to authorize the Minister of Interior to remit the postage on a publication, Paradise of the Pacific. Passed.

Third reading of the Appropriation Bill.

NORWEGIAN JEWELRY.

Messrs. G. West & Co., have on exhibition at their store, Fort St., some very handsome jewelry of Norwegian manufacture, the first ever imported into this country. It is made of filigree gold and silver and comprises a necklace, bracelets, pins and a brooch. The latter reminds one of a delicate piece of lace work. The price of this jewelry is exceedingly reasonable and there is no doubt it will meet with a ready sale.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.

On Saturday last Chas. L. Carter appeared before their Honors the Justices of the Supreme Court and filed his application for a licence to practice as an attorney in the Courts of this kingdom.

The application states that petitioner had pursued the study of law at the Law School of the University of Michigan for the period of two years, being the full regular course at said Law School, and that petitioner had received and now holds the Degree of Bachelor of Laws from said University; that upon examination said petitioner was admitted to the practice of law in the Supreme Courts of the States of Ohio and Michigan, and now holds certificates of such admission. After a brief examination of the certificates and diploma as such Bachelor of Laws, and the administration of oath and payment of the usual fees, the Court granted the licence prayed for.

The petitioner is a Hawaiian born subject, being a son of His Excellency H. A. P. Carter, Hawaiian Minister Resident at Washington.
The applicant had been absent for about five years from the kingdom.

It has been discovered by the doctors that Cooked Taro Flour is excellent food for weak and delicate infants, prepared as follows: One tablespoonful of Cooked Taro Flour mixed with 1 pint of boiling milk. When cold feed the child with a nurse bottle. It will give a child new life in a few weeks. 35 3w

TARO MUSH—Feed the sick and delicate persons on Cooked Taro Flour Mush, made thin and prepared like corn meal in boiling water, and served with milk and sugar. This makes an elegant mush. 35 3w

TARO BISCUIT—Mix Taro Flour very thick in boiling water, then roll in wheat flour and form into bus-cuit. Bake in a little butter at bottom of pan. smear a little butter over the top of Taro Biscuit, this makes a cheap and excellent Taro Cakes. 35 3w

GRIDDLE CAKE—Take half rye flour, half Taro Flour, one or two eggs, little salt, one teaspoonful of Royal Baking Powder to a cupful of milk, bake or fry on griddle. 35 3w

TARO MUSH—Use 2 tablepoons-ful of the Taro Flour to each person and mix thin, prepared like corn meal in boiling water, serve warm or cold with milk and sugar. Taro M-ush can stand a day or two if desired. 35 3w
